

Kidney Disease in the Genomic Era

Time (PT)	Topic	Speaker(s)	Time (PT)	Topic	Speaker(s)
8:00-8:45am	Renasight: Expanding the Scope of Genetic Testing Breakfast served	Trudy McKanna, MS, CGC Director, Medical Education Natera	11:15-11:50am	Integration of genetic testing in transplant medicine: the USC experience	Yasir A Qazi, MD Associate Professor & Transplant Nephrologist Keck Medicine of USC
9:00-9:15am	Welcome and Opening Remarks	Anjay Rastogi, MD, PhD Director, Nephro-Genetics and CORE Kidney Health Program Professor & Clinical Chief of Nephrology University of California, Los Angeles	11:50-12:10pm	Practical application of genetic testing in community nephrology	Anjay Rastogi, MD, PhD Director, Nephro-Genetics and CORE Kidney Health Program Professor & Clinical Chief of Nephrology University of California, Los Angeles
9:15-9:50am	A genetics primer for the modern nephrologist	Marina Dutra-Clarke MS, CGC Licensed Certified Genetic Counselor UCLA Institute for Precision Health Division of Genetics Department of Pediatric Bianca E. Russell, M.D., FAAP, FACMG Assistant Clinical Professor Associate Program Director, Genetics Training Program Division of Pediatric Genetics University of California, Los Angeles	12:10-12:30pm	When genetic testing makes all the difference	Alix Schwartz, MSW Patient
9:50-10:25pm	A deep dive into APOL1 and PKD : what's new and how does a molecular diagnosis help us?	Meyeon Park, MD, MAS Associate Professor In Residence, UCSF Department of Medicine, Division of Nephrology Director, UCSF PKD Center of Excellence	12:30-12:50pm	Panel Q&A	All
10:25-10:40	Break		12:50-1:00pm	Closing Remarks	Anjay Rastogi, MD, PhD Director, Nephro-Genetics and CORE Kidney Health Program Professor & Clinical Chief of Nephrology University of California, Los Angeles
10:40-11:15am	Genetic testing as standard of care: the pediatric nephrology experience	Patricia L. Weng, MD Associate Clinical Health Sciences Professor of Pediatrics Interim Director, Pediatric Kidney Transplantation Program Program Director, Fellowship Training Program	1:00-2:30pm	Reception Wine and hors d'oeuvres served	